

I have had it brought to my attention by the Indiana Attorney General that you are considering changes that may affect Indiana's NO CALL List which pertains to telemarketing. I have been thrilled with the effectiveness of our law. If you are going to make any changes, then you should make ALL telemarketing illegal, having a telephone is NOT intended to be an invitation for invasion of privacy. I personally view ALL telemarketing as just that.